Dedication

Robert Anthony Kovatch, our dedicated class sponsor
for four years,
has watched our class grow from what we were to what we are now. With his enduring patience,
leadership, advice, and sacrifice,
he has helped nurture growing youths into young adults
better able to face the world.
For this we are forever indebted to him.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1976, knowing that we must soon bid farewell to the beautiful school which has been our second home for many years, do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament. To all people on the campus who have patiently accepted the many cares and responsibilities of guiding us along the path of learning, we leave our heartfelt appreciation as the time has come for us to leave our never-to-be-forgotten days at ISD.

To the ISD students, we leave our proud position as seniors, with the hopes that the members will work hard and accept their full responsibility for many happy and successful years.

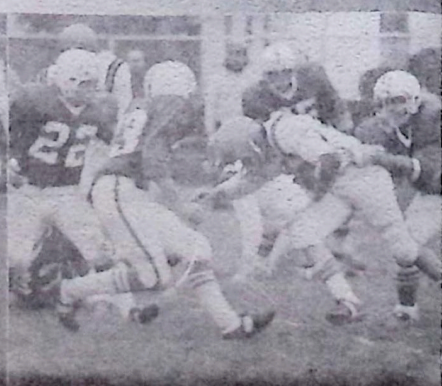

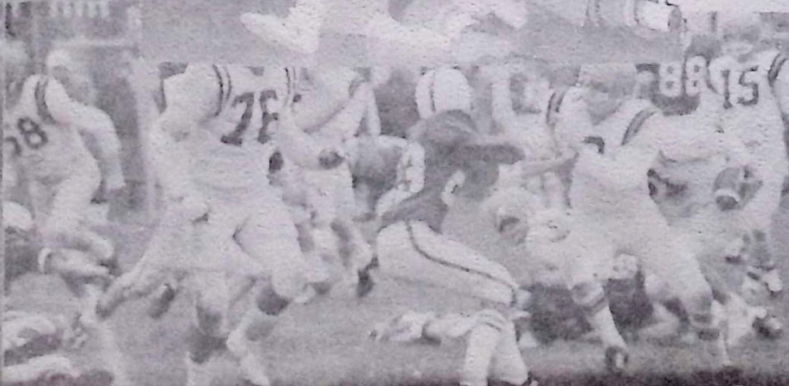

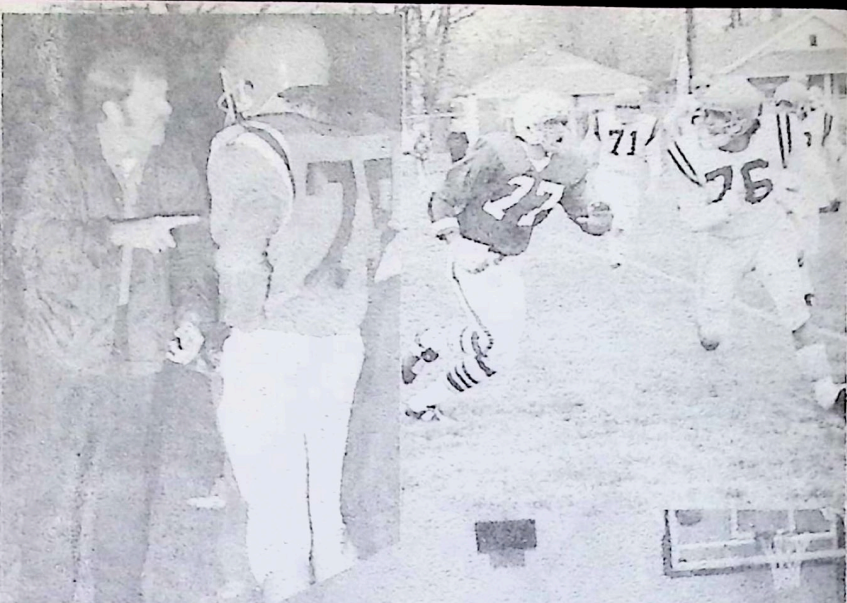

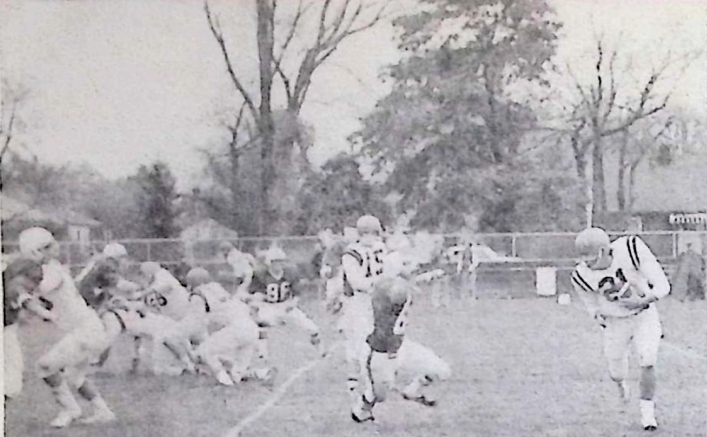

I, Denise Baber, will my ability to do my hobby, working with a dictionary, to Vicki Marlow.
I, Dwight Benedict, will my love for my favorite sport, wrestling, to James Baumgardner.
I, Jeffrey Black, will my lunch table to John Monroe.
I, Christine Blackwell, will my job to anyone who wants it.
I, Russel Blaker, will my interest in cults to Brian Risk.
I, Mark Bower, will my skills in the hurdles to Julie Belviy.
I, Rex Brake, will my ability to keep my mind on '65 Mustangs to Allan Brooks.
I, Kim Cain, will my hate for Marion to Tom Rigsbee.
I, Krista Cobb, will my ability to laugh hard to Kimberly Ballard.
I, Deborah Conrad, will my ability to be a pest to Laurie Malone.
I, Ray Conrad, will my mind on politics to Matthew Moore.
I, Robert Davern, will my interest in crimes to Kirk Prough.
I, Teresa Ezzell, will my inability to be a cartoon artist to Carl Pramuk.
I, Laura Gray, will my ability to show up in class to Teresa Parker.
I, Jeannie Gross, will my ability to tease to Linda Heimbach.
I, Terry Henderson, will my love for my favorite sport, golf, to Greg Gantt.
I, Jeffrey Holsinger, will my favorite jokes to Charles Huffman.
I, Mark Hucko, will my influence to smoke to Charles Huffman.
I, Bruce King, will my weakness for milk to Brian Frodge.
I, James Laskey, will my favorite sport to Mike Fonseca.
I, Linda Long, will my cheerleading ability to Annette Niles.
I, Scheryl Malone, will my easy laugh to James Baumgardner.
I, Debbie Manwaring, will my hate of getting up in the mornings to Pam Wallace.
I, Dennis Morris, will my love of exercising to Scott Miller.
I, Brenda Pearson, will my ability to scare people to Vicki Marlow.
I, Michael Rees, will my love for Chevrolet cars to Jack Ylovchan.
I, Robin Reynolds, will my talkative habits in class to Patty Campbell.
I, Jeffrey Richards, will my ability to drive very slowly to Mike Carmack.
I, Pamela Schwanke, will my ability to always be on time to Marsha Boyd.
I, Gary Six, will my ready smile to Greg Gantt.
I, Caryn Spall, will my slowpoke action to Marsha Boyd.
I, Randall Stucker, will my love of picking on Melani Terrell to Scott Summerlin.
I, Michael Voltz, will my ability to be a glutton to Tim Ross.
I, Robert Wilkerson, will my keeping the tradition of tobacco chewing to Jodee Scharfenberger.

Having bequeathed all our wordly goods, we do now take our departure from the campus of ISD and we hope all of you will fill our places next fall.
